

INVITE Programme and Doctoral Programme in Human Sciences
in collaboration with PoliTeSse and CRED Research Centres; APRESO Research Group

Including Diversity in Research, 3rd edition

Pictured: Unicorn – by Lissa R.

The seminars of 03-02 and 10-03 will be held in Aula D3-Artemisia, Palazzo di Lettere, Verona. The other seminars will be held online. To get the Zoom link, please contact Francesco Tommasi for the session of 15-03 (francesco.tommasi@univr.it) and Adriano Habed for the sessions of 17 & 31-03 (adrianojose.habed@univr.it).

Feb. 3, 2022 (Thursday)	14:00- 16:00	Massimo Prearo , Università degli Studi di Verona (IT)	Studying activism, whether you like it or not: contexts and strategies (PoliTeSse)
Mar. 10, 2022 (Thursday)	14:00- 16:00	Alessio Surian , Università degli Studi di Padova (IT)	Miss Understanding and the Diversity Advantage Narratives (CRED)
Mar. 15, 2021 (Tuesday)	14:00- 16:00	Matthijs Bal , University of Lincoln (UK)	Criticalizing your research: how to make your research more engaged and meaningful? (APRESO)
Mar. 17, 2021 (Thursday)	14:00- 16:00	Elia A.G. Arfini , CRAAAZI, Bologna & Università degli Studi di Milano Statale (IT)	Rethinking the "Evil Twin": trans perspectives in the queer field (PoliTeSse)
Mar. 31, 2021 (Thursday)	14:00- 16:00	Katrine Smiet , Radboud University Nijmegen (NL)	Sojourner Truth, Intersectionality and Feminist Scholarship (PoliTeSse)